TrustEd Schools is a Shropshire multi-academy trust looking after a family of local schools, consisting of 5 secondaries and 4 primaries. We are a professional and friendly trust committed to raising pupils' aspirations so that all young people reach their fullest potential and achieve the success they want for themselves.

Main outline of the job

We are looking to appoint a Learning Support Assistant to provide effective support in our SEND department. The successful candidate should meet the following criteria:

- Keen interest in supporting young people to overcome barriers to success.
- Energetic and tenacious in their approach to systems that promote the good behaviour and academic success of students.
- Excellent communication skills and a willingness to work flexibly within our friendly SEND team.

The post involves supporting access to learning for pupils and assisting the teacher in the management of pupils and the classroom, including support for individual Education Health Care Plans (EHCP and Personal Education Plans (PEPs)). The successful applicant will work across the school providing individual or small group intervention. They will actively strive to build positive relationships and raise pupil aspiration.

This role includes providing intimate and personal care support (including changing and personal hygiene needs) to a female pupil in accordance with individual care plans. Due to the nature of these duties, this post is restricted to female applicants only (occupational requirement under Schedule 9, Part 1 of the Equality Act 2010).

Application process:

Full details of the role and application process are available from the school's website Home | Church Stretton School. If you feel you have the qualities to complement our existing team then we would love to hear from you. Please note CVs will not be accepted.

The closing date for all applications is Friday 30th January 2026 at 9am

Interviews will be held as soon as possible after the closing date. An email will be sent to shortlisted candidates with details of the interview process. If you have not heard from us within a week of the closing date, please assume your application has been unsuccessful.

Completed application forms should be returned to Sian Wilmot at the school or by email to admin@csschool.co.uk by the closing date.

The appointment is subject to satisfactory pre-employment clearances including references, medical clearance and an enhanced DBS Disclosure under the "Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974". Further details regarding this check are available by visiting www.dbs.gov.uk. This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people/vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Shortlisted candidates will be required to complete a self-declaration of their criminal record or any information that would make them unsuitable to work with children, so that they have the opportunity to share relevant information and discuss it at interview stage.

An online search will be undertaken as part of due diligence checks during the shortlisting process.
